Social Fitness Application | Just Win By Training Together

JustHuynh selected to exhibit at StartupGrind and Collision

BOSTON, MA -- February 16, 2017

Being active is the top New Year's resolution. Many people begin the year on track, but quit after 60 days since no one is keeping them accountable or motivated. Want to get back on track to a healthy lifestyle? JustHuynh is the social fitness app that will improve your life – connecting you with people nearby to train together to just win at achieving your fitness goals thru community support and gamification.

JustHuynh will launch in GooglePlay and iOS app stores in March.
